All applicants are required to complete the following time assessment questions as a part of the application process. This information will not be used as an admission consideration. However, it is crucial that you consider each question carefully and answer truthfully. The objective is to assist you in assessing whether or not your present circumstances are supportive of the academic endeavor you plan to undertake.

It is estimated that a student should spend a minimum of two to three hours outside of class for each in-class hour. Recommended minimum weekly time commitments are outlined below.

	In-Class	Minimum Study time	Total Minimum Weekly Commitment
Part-time	9 hours	18 hours	27	hrs
Full-time	12-15 hours	24 hours	36-39	hrs

1. I presently work _____ hours per week.
2. My commute to work one-way takes approximately _____ minutes/hours.
3. My commute to school from work takes _____ minutes / hours.
4. My commute to school from home takes _____ minutes / hours.
5. Commitment to family activities on the weekend is approximately _____ hours.
6. The amount of time I spend on personal/family tasks during the week is _____ hours.
7. The amount of sleep I generally need per night is _____ hours.

Please review your answers and the information contained in the above section to assist you in realistically assessing whether you are able to commit the time necessary to the study of law. You are encouraged to speak to a counselor to discuss your personal situation if you have any questions or concerns.

All Law School applicants are required to take the LSAT prior to admission. Official scores must be received from the testing service (LSAT scores more than four years prior to date of application will not be accepted).

Do you intend to apply for admission to practice law in a state other than California? Yes No

NOTE: Most states require graduation from a law school approved by the American Bar Association as a condition to taking the Bar Examination in their state. Accordingly, study at, _____ or _____ graduation _____ from, UWLA School of Law is not accepted as qualifying the student for admission in most states. Therefore, if you intend to seek admission in a state other than California, you should consult the admitting authority in that state to find out whether study at UWLA School of Law will be accepted.

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information above is correct in all respects. I understand that, if admitted to The University of West Los Angeles School of Law, I must abide by the regulations of the School of Law and that, under the laws of the State of California, I must register with the Committee of Bar Examiners within ninety (90) days after I commence the study of law.

I have read and understood the information contained in the time assessment questions, and I am prepared to make the commitment as part of my application.

I further understand that the application fee is non-refundable and that all documents submitted on my behalf to The University of West Los Angeles are the sole property of The University of West Los Angeles.
